

Bard Cappella Academic Award for Applied Literacy

$350 Award

This award is given to SUNY Buffalo State English Education, Literature, and Writing students to support and encourage meaningful student-run projects that improve the literacy development of young people across our region and throughout the world.

Potential applicants for this award are strongly advised to consult with a member of the faculty in preparing their application.

To apply for this award, submit a written description of your project along with the name of a faculty reference. Applicants may be asked to interview with the Awards committee.
